Bungalow Residence at Blackhall, Kilurin

LOCATION: A family home with stunning views of the Wexford countryside rolling hills, this detached bungalow is located in one Wexford's most sought-after rural addresses. A convenient location to Wexford town within 15mins drive and 20 mins to New Ross as it is located just off the N25. The new road network to Dublin is easily reached offering an easy motorway commute when and if required. The village of Glynn is a short 3km distance with a primary school, after school and ECCE facility, church and community hall. The popular Glynn Barntown GAA club house and grounds is 5km from the property. Further village amenities can be found in Killurin with local shop, hairdressers, takeaway and pubs. The property is on a bus route servicing primary and secondary schools to include Glynn National School, all Wexford town schools and Adamstown Colaiste Abbain.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION: Set on just under an acre the charming grounds are mature and attractively easy to manage with mature hedging and planting and manicured lawns. The concrete driveway rises up to the property offering an impressive entrance.

The bungalow avails of the best of suns orientation with the living / kitchen / dining areas situated south westerly. Extending to c. 1,990sq.ft. it offers rooms with potential for multipurpose options. The large entrance hall is warm and welcoming and flows to the living area easily. The bedroom quarters are privately positioned down the long central corridor with natural light flowing inwards overhead thanks to a well-positioned velux window. A quality high end finish throughout is evident from the first steps with solid oak flooring in the hallway, quality tiling, built in wardrobes and fittings. Resulting in a turn-key condition ready to occupy with ease.
